SUSPENSE

Date

Remarks:

W Executive Secretary

Date

9 December 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR:

STAT

FROM:

Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT:

[Redacted]

STAT

Marian:

1. I come out on this thinking that it's inappropriate for current employees to publish commentary on U.S. foreign policy matters. I do this because the mere employment by CIA takes the commentary out of the realm of private opinion and places the imprimatur of CIA onto it, whether it is true or not. I say this because anyone knowledgeable of your CIA association would accept a certain credibility or credence to your comments.

2. I would therefore ask that you not publish it.
